To Whom It May Concern,

This note is to certify that the following students are enrolled in CTVA 439, an advanced production class at California State University, Fullerton. This project is not meant to be for commercial purposes, nor retail and strictly for curriculum purposes only. The class is part of a three course set in which our students pre-produced, produce, and post an ultra-low-budget feature film funded by grants from the Hollywood Foreign Press Association and CSUF's Associated Students fees. These students are working with the below listed industry mentors, who are donating their time to guide our students in this complex undertaking. Please afford them every possible discount.

And please don't hesitate to contact me if you have question I may be able to answer. Thanks for your help.
